Office of the Excise Commissioner
in Mysore,
Dated, Camp, Mysore, 21st/22nd October 1912.

No. 3213
Enclosures.

From

C. Kantaraj Urs, Esq., B.A.,
Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

P.W. 102-12
Sl.no. 1

To

K.R. Srinivasiengar, Esq., M.A.,
Offg: Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

In submitting a copy of the letter No. 673, dated 9th October 1912, from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur, I beg to state that this is the third or fourth occasion on which Mr. Hanumantha Rao, the District Excise Officer of that District has been disturbed from his legitimate duties since the beginning of the current official year, without even so much as a reference to me as the Head of the Department, which I am entitled to, I believe. The position of a Head of a Department is scarcely enviable if he is to be ignored, as has been done in the case in question and in similar other instances referred to by the Deputy Commissioner in para 2 of his letter.

2. The tineration of the District Excise Officer in question has consequently suffered much owing to ~~being~~ these frequent disturbances and its effect upon the Excise Administration of this District may well be imagined. As suggested by the Deputy Commissioner and wished for by Mr. Hanumantha Rao himself, I have not the slightest objection to his being taken out of this Department.

3. I may take this opportunity to submit for the considera-
-tion of Government that there are more Amildars than Assistant Commissioners acting as District Excise Officers in this Department for some time past which is not in agreement with the scale as per Civil List. If Mr. Hanumantha Rao should also go out of this Department there will be only one Assistant Commissioner left viz. Mr. Zahiruddin Laccai, as the District Excise Officer out of four provided for in the Civil List. This inequality is not without its disadvantages.

4. Some of the present District Excise Officers who are only Amildars and that too low down in the list do not possess sufficient prestige to command that respect or regard which is due to the position of a District Excise Officer, and what is worse, some of them happen to be posted to the more important Districts.

5. Such is the deplorable state of affairs in this Department and this is bound to continue to be so, so long as the unfortunate impression that the Excise Department is a dumping ground for all the undesirables or the inefficients, lasts.

6. I hope Government will be pleased to carefully consider the present condition of things in this Department and post such officers to the Department as will acquit themselves creditably to the satisfaction of all concerned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Excise Commissioner.

Letter No. 673, dated 9th October 1918, from the Deputy Commis-sioner, Tumkur District, to the Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

I have the honor to invite your attention to Notification No. R.1908/L.R.71-18-7, dated the 2nd October 1918, granting combined leave for one year to Mr. Narasinga Rao Purnaiya, Assistant Commis-sioner, and posting Mr. G. Hanumantha Rao, District Excise Officer, to be in charge of the Treasury in addition to his own duties.

2. I beg to represent that this combination of duties is causing some inconvenience. Recently Mr. G. Hanumantha Rao was in charge of the Paddigiri Sub-Division in addition to his duties and before that he was in charge of the Police Superintendent's work. Now that he has to stay in Head Quarters for the charge of the Treasury, the out-door work of the Excise Department is suffering to some extent. I would, therefore, urge on you the need to have a separate officer for charge of the Excise work.

3. I understand that Mr. Hanumantha Rao would be glad to have charge of a Treasury permanently as he finds himself not quite equal to frequent touring and it seems to me that this is a suitable opportunity to give him a change. I would suggest that he might be transferred to the Revenue Department and put in charge of the Treasury and that in his place, Mr. K.S. Ramachandra Rao, B.A., Amildar of Tumkur Taluk, might be appointed to act as District Excise Officer (of an Amildar's grade if there is any difficulty in appoint-ing him to act as Assistant Commissioner) and that Mr. T.S.Venkata-
-ramaniyer, Sub-Registrar, Tumkur, may be appointed to act as Amildar of Tumkur.

4. Since the proposals affect the Revenue and the Excise Depart-
-ment, I am addressing this communication both to the Revenue Commis-sioner and the Excise Commissioner. I request that Government may be moved in the matter for early orders being passed to give the

District

District its full complement of officers.
